SHUCKINGLY CLOSE

Bentley's celebrated the launch of the native oyster season with a shucking competition, its head shucker Filippo Salamone triumphing over Mon Plaisir's Sebastian Torres to the soundtrack of a Dixieland jazz trio playing outside the restaurant on Swallow Street. To celebrate some more, Bentley's is offering half a dozen Maldon rock oysters with a glass of Picpoul de Pinet for £9.95 – jazz trio sadly not included.
