THERE IS SUCH A THING AS A FREE LUNCH With a week and a half still to go before school starts again, you're probably wondering, 'What now?' You could take the problem to Bentley's Oyster Bar and Grill, which is offering a 'kids eat free' deal until Friday under the London Kids Week scheme. Children (one per paying adult) can choose from a special menu including melon, fish and chips, macaroni and ice-cream. Bentley's, 11-15 Swallow Street, London W1 (020-7734 4756; reservations@bentleys.org). Quote 'Kids Week' when booking.
